
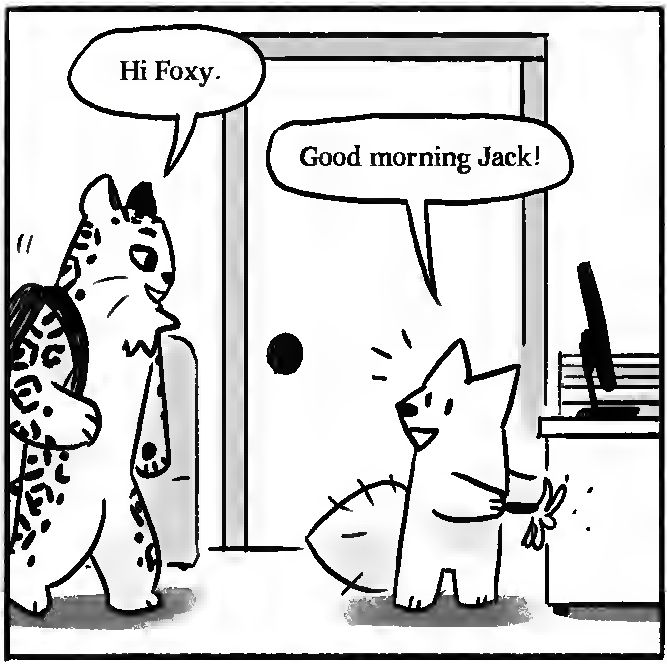
Jack usually works with Cheetah-B.

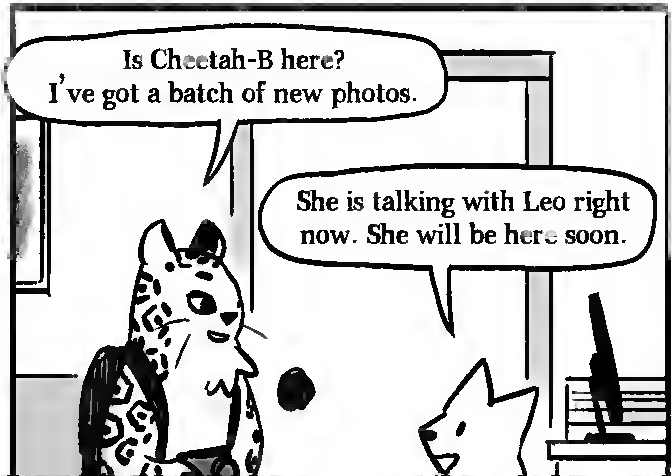
Because they are close species, they share many things in common and become friends quickly.

They have similar tastes.

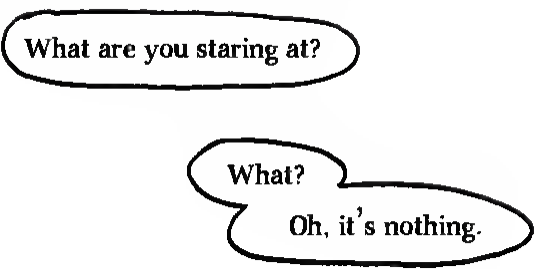
They are both good looking.



Hi Foxy.
Good morning Jack!



Is Cheetah-B here?
I've got a batch of new photos.
She is talking with Leo right now. She will be here soon.



What are you staring at?
What?
Oh, it's nothing.

That brand is notorious for making money from bad designs they so-call "trendy".
I thought so.
This one looks better.
I'm more interested in these camera accessories.
It's the same store. We can go check it out after work.
Sure. It's along my route.

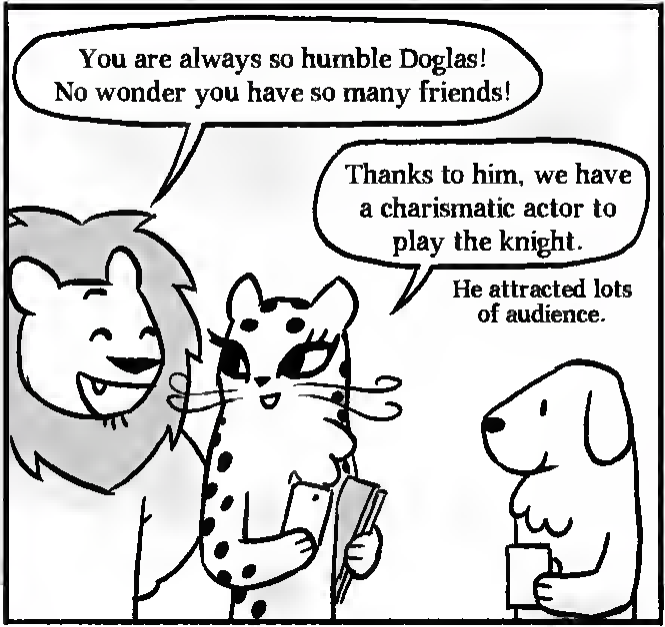
The Sprout cafe!

I'm fine with anything as long as the dessert is good!

We are always short of photographers. Can you help us out?
Sure, give me a call if you need anything.
What a nice guy.
bye

Because they share a lot of common topics,

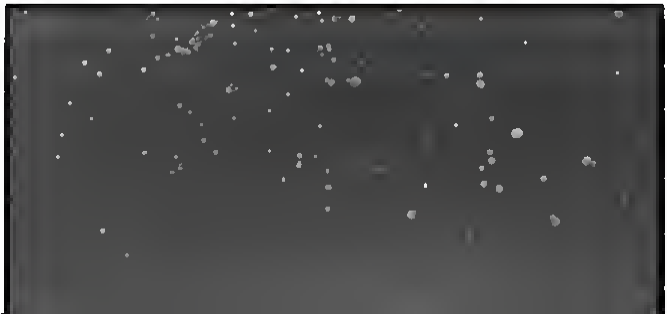
they have a lot to chat about.



You are always so humble Doglas!
No wonder you have so many friends!
Thanks to him, we have a charismatic actor to play the knight.
He attracted lots of audience.

They are both trendy.

This must be Cheetah-rella's shoe!



After that, Jack often come to our office to help with our projects.

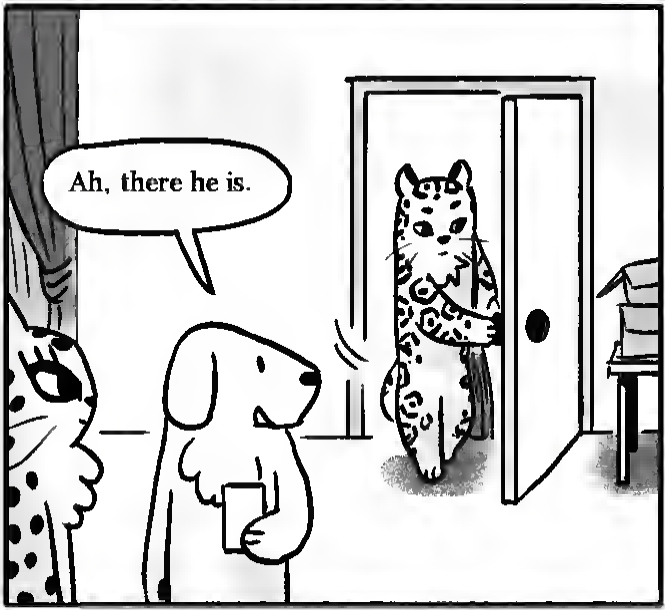
Behind the scenes

Why don't you have a role in the play?

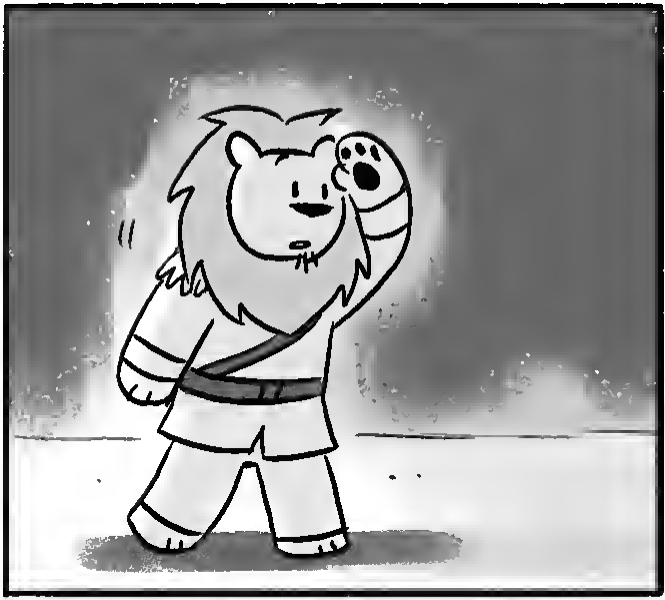
I need to help with the lighting and music... and props...

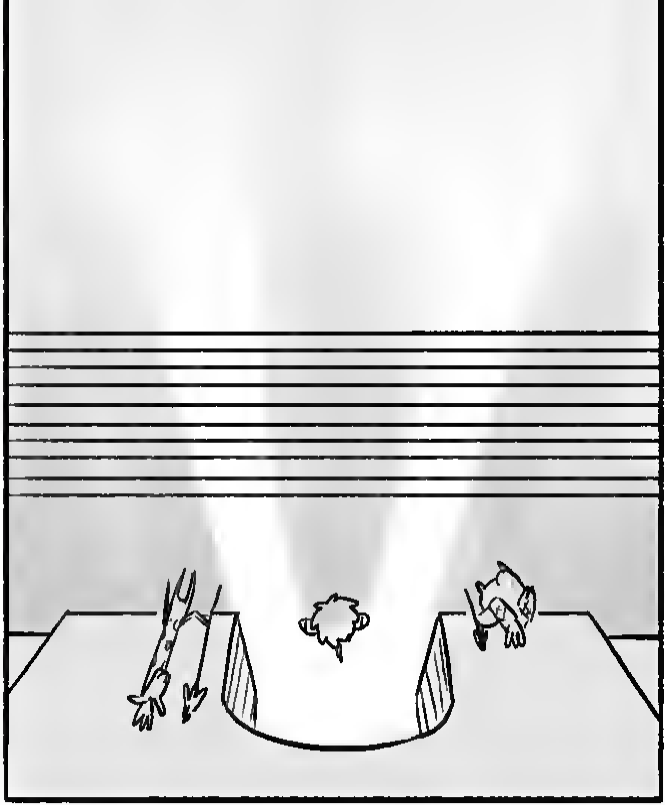
doesn't like being under spotlight

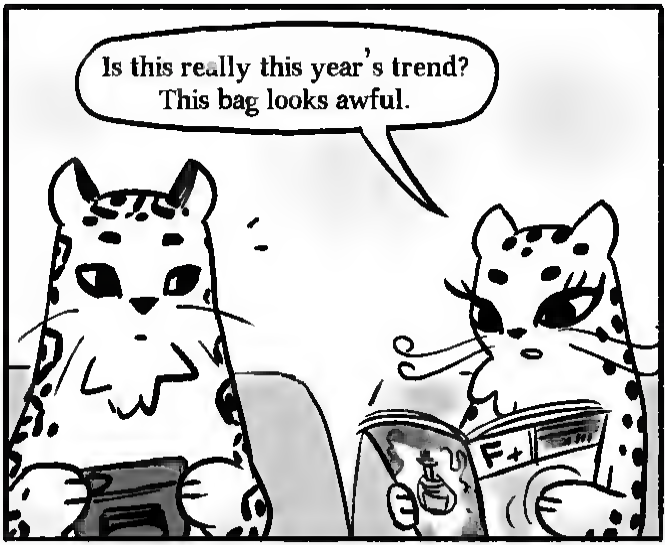


Ah, there he is.

Great work!
Thanks for organizing, everything went smoothly!
No problem.
I should really thank Doglas for his help, he knows a lot about the stage and he's good at directing the play.
Don't mention it.







Is this really this year's trend?
This bag looks awful.

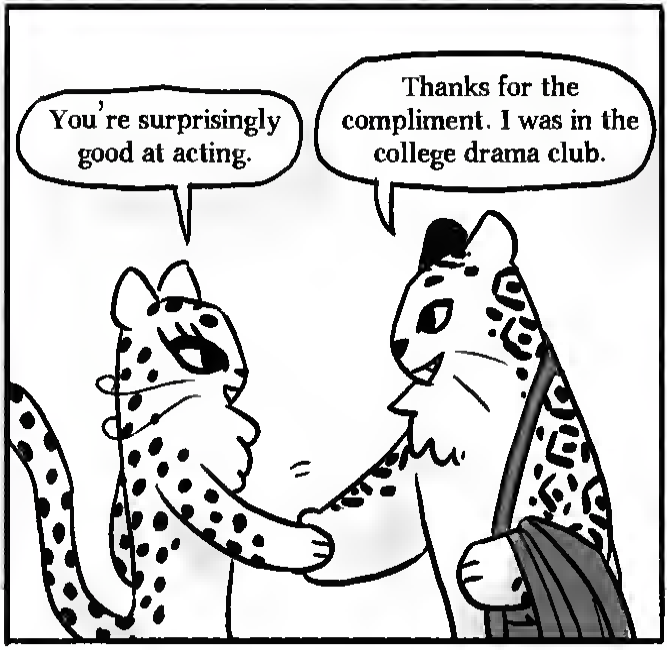
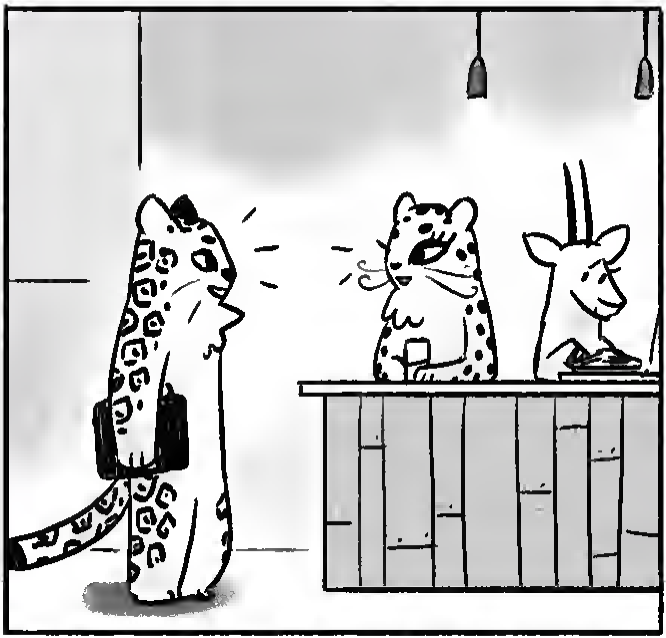
Can I have a look at your photos?
Sure. You can view all my works on my website.
Wow, they are really beautiful!

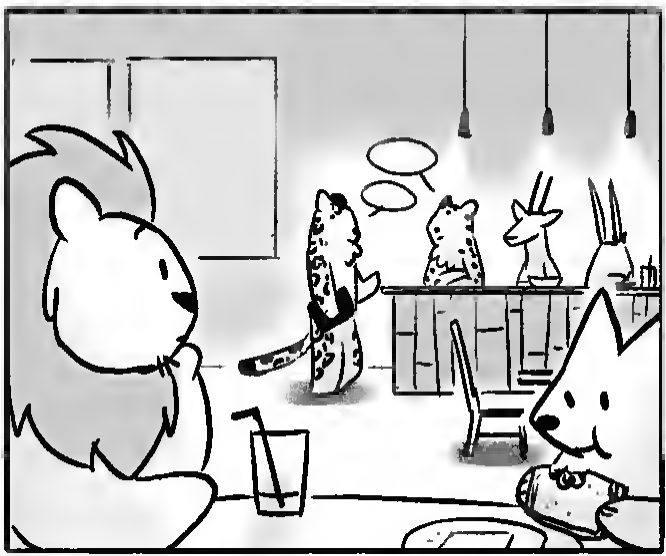
We will have another story in the next episode!

The Cheetah-rella storyline will continue to develop in later episodes.



You're surprisingly good at acting.
Thanks for the compliment. I was in the college drama club.



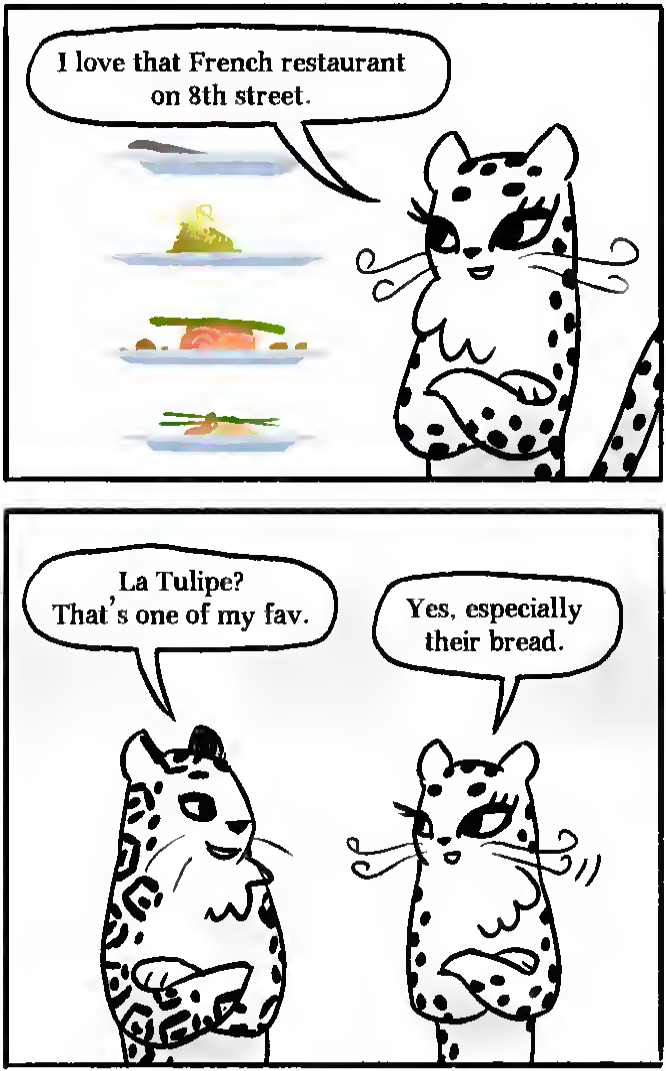


I can find her with this shoe!

Leo?
Hey, Leo!
Huh?

This is Jack, my good friend.
He's a freelance photographer.

Have you seen Cheetah-rella?
She went that way, Prince Leo.



I love that French restaurant on 8th street.
La Tulipe? That's one of my fav.
Yes, especially their bread.
